1. SMA Order No. 278, dated 9 September 1946, provides for the organization of production of foundry machinery. To this end, the President of the German Central Administration for Industry, Szygospynski, is ordered to carry out the following plans:
 2. The former Hartung und Jachmann Werke (Berlin) will have a new directorate appointed and the plant will be readied for production of foundry machinery by January 1947.
 3. Qualified workers and molders, previously employed at the former Hartung und Jachmann Werke, are to be reassembled.
 4. The directorates of the former Hartung und Jachmann Werke and the Nationale Radlitor Gesellschaft in Schönebeck (D78) are to be directed to accept orders from the Reparations Administration of the SMA for foundry equipment: molding machinery of the "Hermann" and "Osborn" types.
 5. The original order is signed by Genpolk Kurochkin, Deputy Supreme Chief of the SMA; F.-Bokov, Member of the War Council of the Soviet Occupation Army; Genleit G. Lukyachenko, Temporary Deputy of the Chief of Staff of the SMA; and Major Polegenko, Deputy Chief of the General Divisick of the SMA.
